

POPULATION

YEAR SIX

SPRING 2

LESSON THREE

What is a population pyramid?

Retrieval Practice

1. Give two reasons for changes in birth rate.
  - a. _____
  - b. _____
2. What would be higher if there is a natural increase in the population Birth rate or Death rate?
_____
3. In what year did the UK's population begin to rapidly increase?
  - a. 1900
  - b. 1850
  - c. 1950
  - d. 1800
4. Which type of area has a high population density, rural or urban areas? .....
5. The majority of the world's population will be located in Africa by 2100. True/False

2.

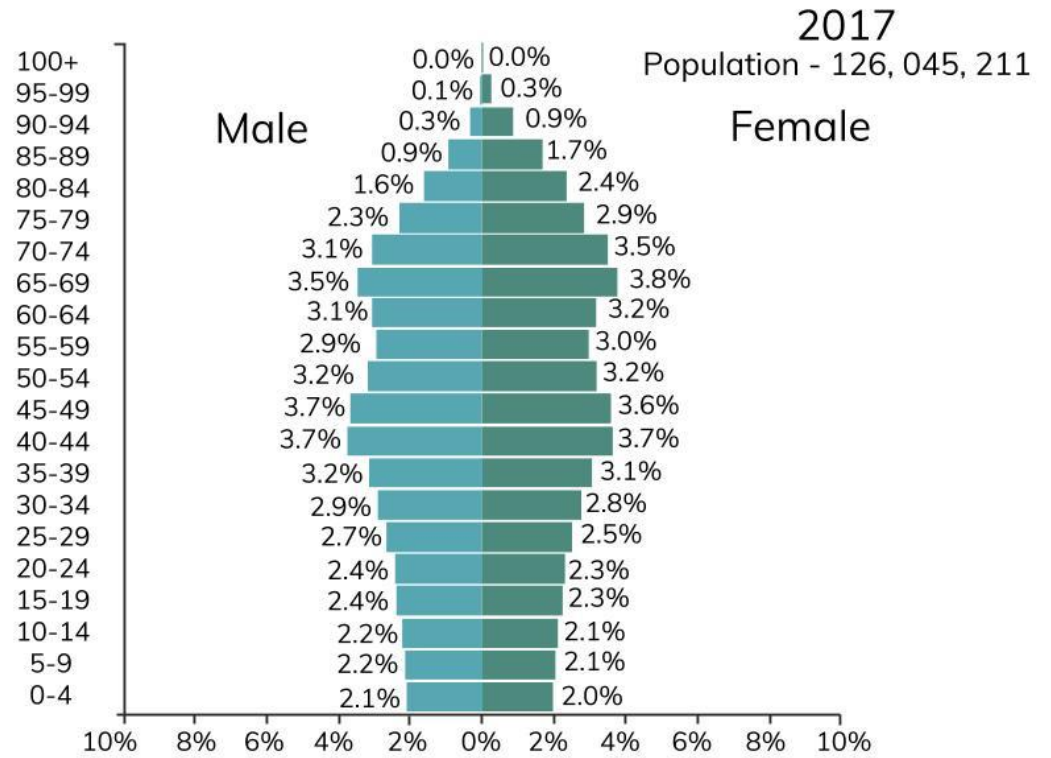

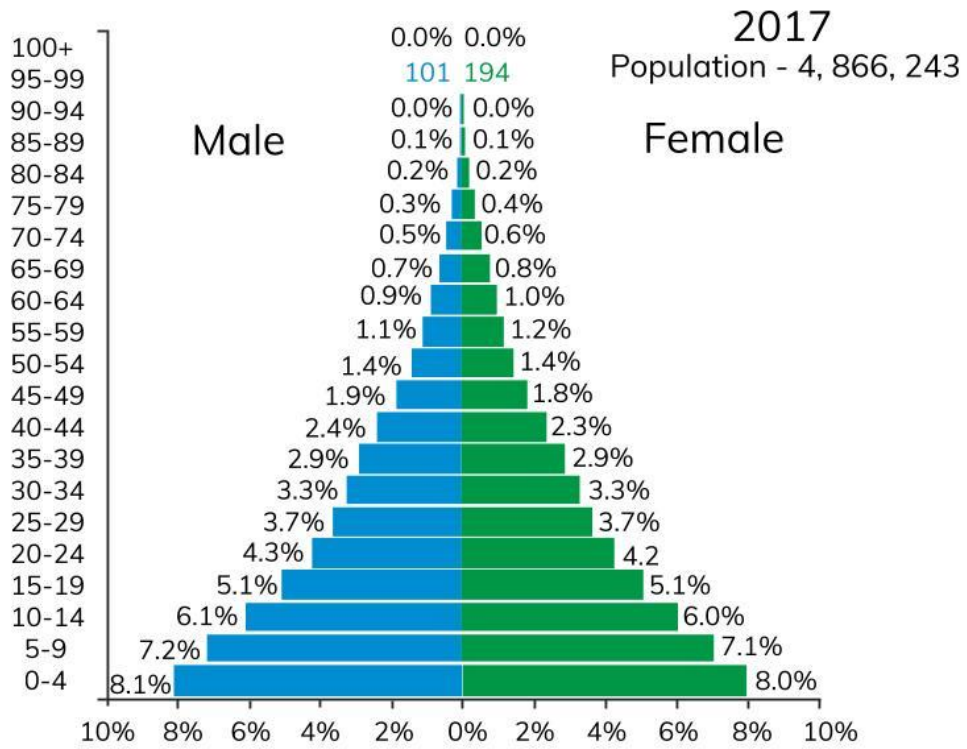

3. Use the text above to label the population pyramid below.

Helpful words: males; females; age; percentage of population; highest life expectancy

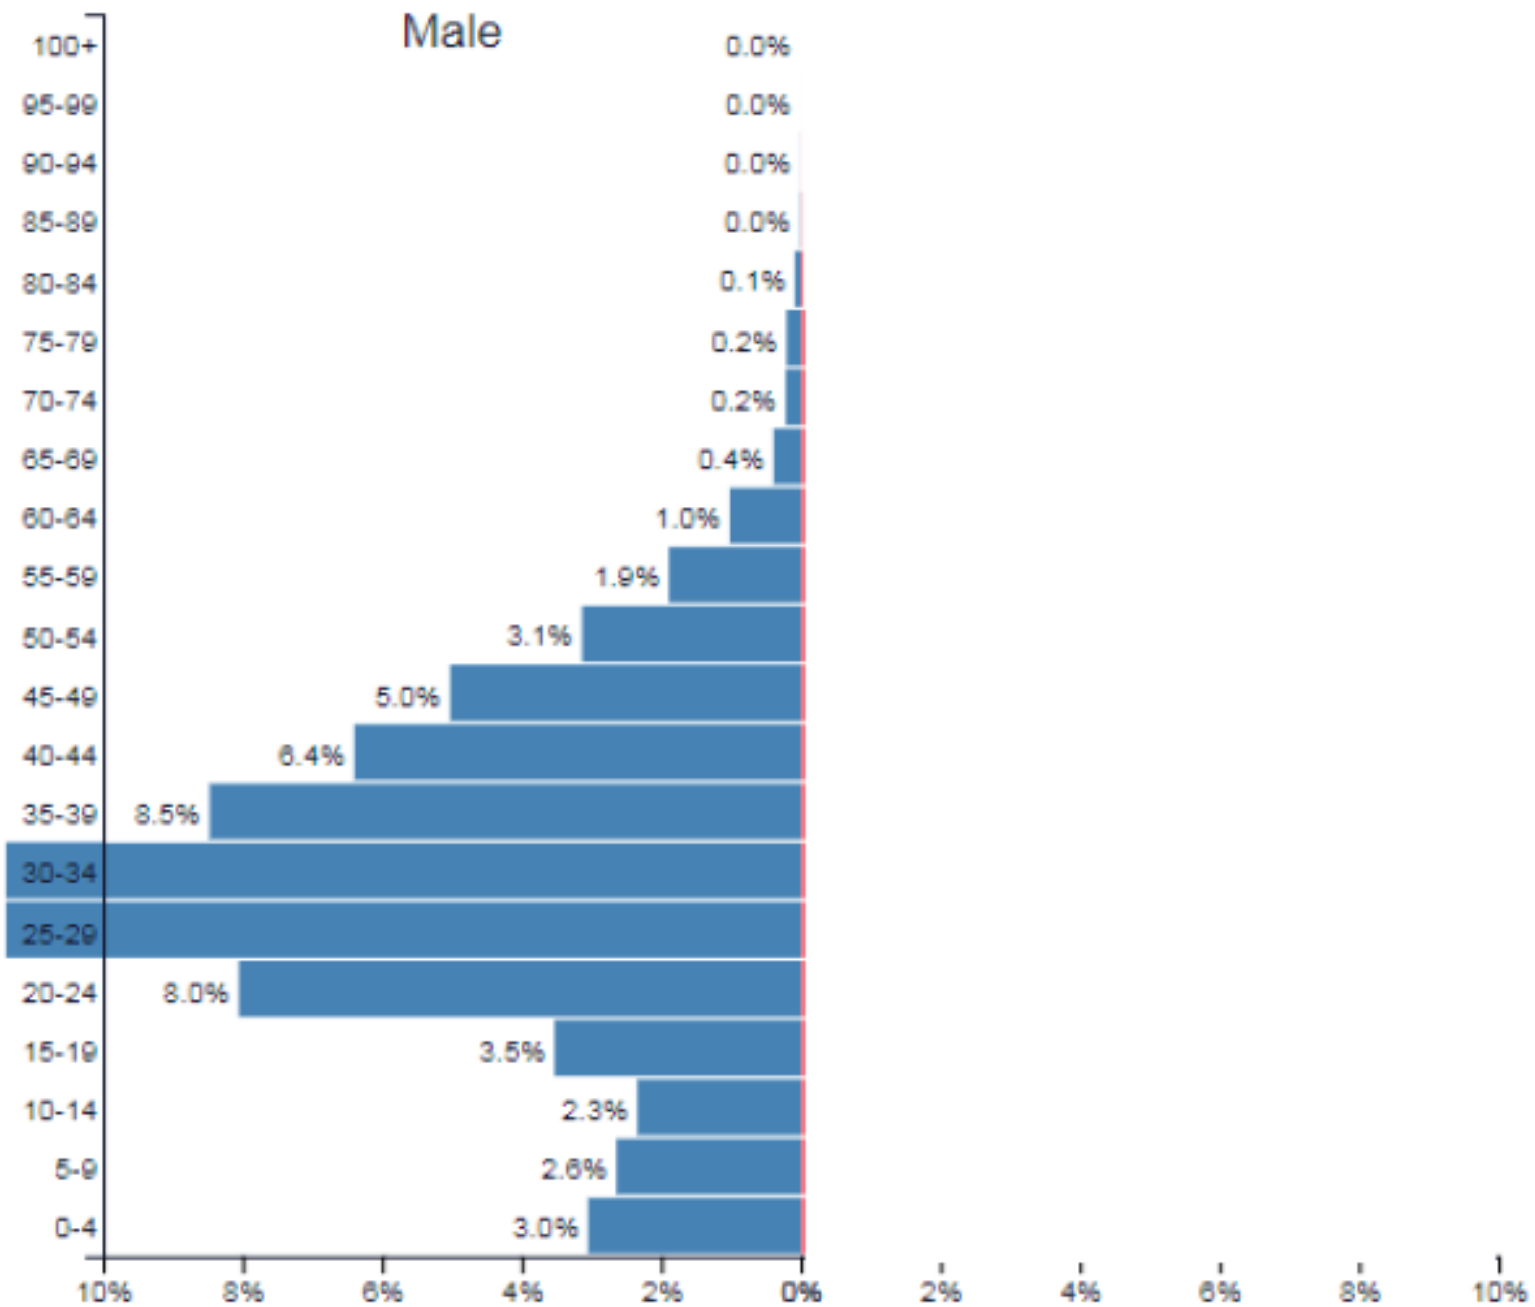

Graph: Population pyramid

3.

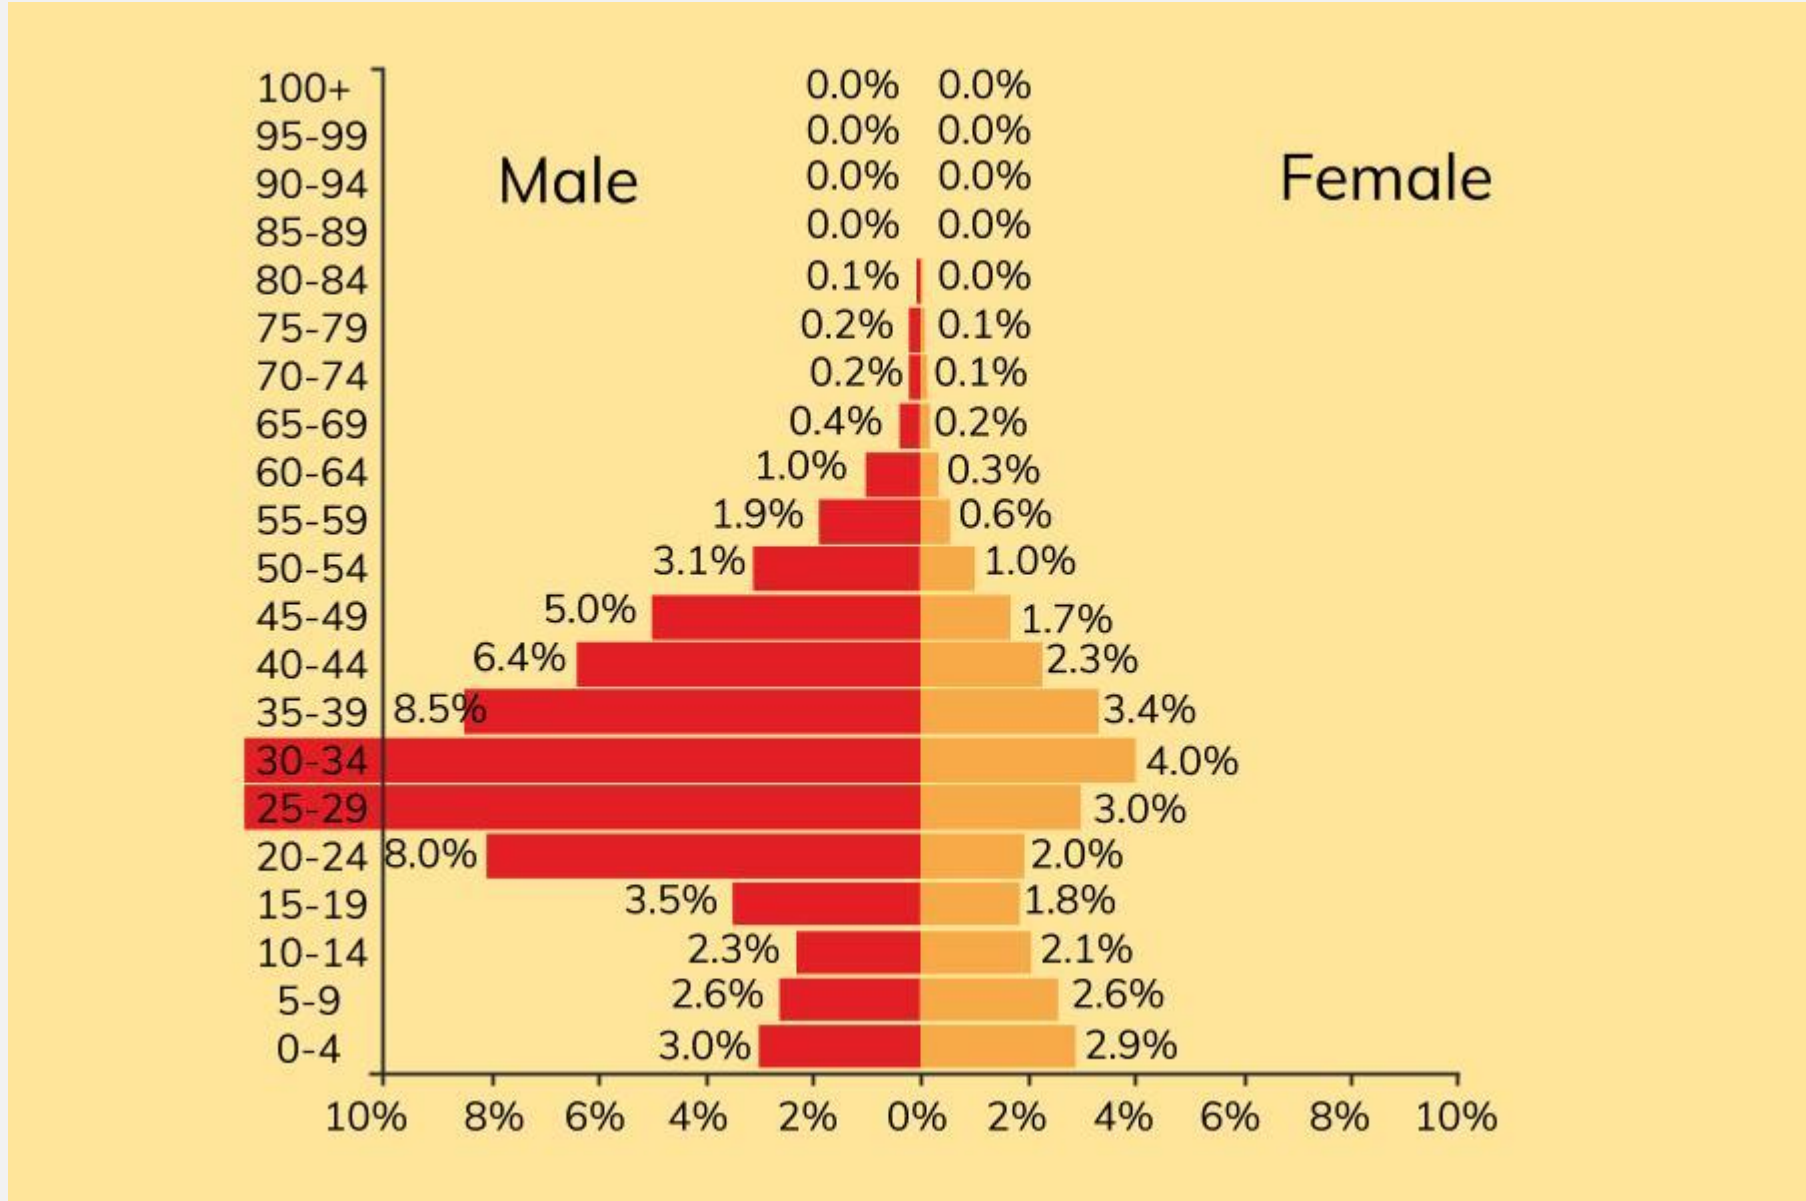

4.

Source:
Populationpyramid.net

4. ANSWERS

6.

a) A war has been occurring for the last five years. (increase/decrease)

i) Which age groups and sex do you think this would affect most?

Males aged 18-50

a) There are a large number of jobs doing manual labour for migrant workers.

(increase/decrease)

i) Which age groups and sex do you think this would affect most?

Males ages 18-65 (working age)

a) A country has started a population policy that only allows women to have one child.

(increase/decrease)

i) Which age group would this affect?

0-4

a) Medical care has been improving for the last 50 years. (increase/decrease)

i) Which age groups would this affect?

0-49

a) Which of the previous causes of bulges and dips is the most likely explanation for the bulge in the Qatar population pyramid? Jobs for migrant workers

Learning Review

