

A Contrasting Locality (China) - Year 2 – Summer 2

China is one of the worlds biggest countries.

It is located in East Asia. More people live in China than any other country in the world.

Their capital city is Beijing.

China's climate is very varied. In the South it is tropical., but in the North it can be Arctic.

The main language spoken is Mandarin.
Their currency is called yuan.
A very important part of Chinese culture is Chinese New Year.

There are many famous landmarks in China.

The great wall of China.

The Forbidden City

The TerraCotta Army

Mount Everest

Population	The number of people who live in a certain area.
Climate	The average weather of a place over a long time
Farming	Keeping animals for meat and dairy products. Growing crops.
Export	Selling produce to other countries.
Produce	Products which are grown/created in a certain country.
Similar	Features which are the same.
Different	Features which are not the same.
Tradition	A belief, information or a custom which has been handed down from one generation to another.
Ancient	Very old, happened a very long time ago.
Landmark	A building or place which has historical importance.

The Yangtze river is the longest in all of Asia.

It is used for water, irrigation, sanitation and transportation.

It is one of the busiest rivers in the world.

The capital Beijing is one of the oldest cities in the world.

Nearly 15 million people live in Beijing.

School starts earlier than here – around 7:30 AM.
Children finish school at around 6PM!

Food is different in China to the UK.

Many people in China rely on farming and grow many crops.

China is the world's biggest producer of rice, wheat and tea.

